

THE OHIO DEMOCRAT.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

The Logan Printing and Publishing Co.
(INCORPORATED)
PUBLISHERSVIRGIL C. LOWRY, PRESIDENT.
H. O. HANSEL, SECRETARY.
J. B. DOLAN, EDITOR.OFFICE:—In Dillion Block, South Door.
Entered at the Postoffice in Logan, Ohio, as Second Class Mail Matter.

Thursday, March 15, 1906.

COUNCIL.
MEETING

The Village Council had a rather interesting session, Tuesday evening. All the members were present.

After the reading of minutes, the reports of the clerk and treasurer of the corporation for the month of February were read. They showed a total balance in the treasury of $8297.66, and a few small outstanding orders. The mayor reported also for the month, showing $52.00 collected from fines and $13.00 in city seal fees. On motion all reports were accepted.

Col. Weldy introduced an ordinance to prohibit and punish fast driving and riding on the streets.

The ordinance as introduced limited the speed to six miles an hour, and also forbade the turning of a corner or exit from an alley at a speed faster than a walk. Thurness moved to amend the ordinance to read eight, instead of six miles, and after some discussion, the amendment was adopted by a vote of five to one. On motion the ordinance was then placed on its final passage, second and third readings being dispensed with, and adopted unanimously. The penalty for violation is a fine, from $5 to $50.

Mr. Angle introduced an ordinance to license hawkers, peddlers and hucksters. It provides that no one shall hawk, vend or sell on the streets any article not his own handwork or produce, without a license duly issued by the mayor. The license fee is placed at $1 to $5 per day for each person so selling. Penalty for violation is not to exceed $25 and costs. A wish was expressed by several members to include in the regulation the selling of goods at auction by transient dealers otherwise than on the streets. Consultation of the statutes, known, revealed holdings against discriminating against stores, and the ordinance was unanimously passed as introduced.

After the report of the finance committee, Mr. Angle suggested that it would be well at this time to issue notices to those property owners who were notified last year to pave and failed to do so. Prompt action will probably be taken in this direction at the next meeting.

Mr. Thurness, for the Street Committee, reported that, pursuant to instructions at the last meeting, arrangements have been made for the extension north of Orchard street. The extension strip was purchased from the Stiers estate for $200. Mr. August Riddlebaugh, who owns property abutting on the extension, and was a petitioner for the same, very liberally pays $150 of this sum. At an early date the lines will be run and the extension formally dedicated.

Mr. Shaw reported that new chandeliers for the city offices had been ordered.

Referring to the examination of the books of the Water Works Department, Mr. Thurness stated that the special committee delegated for that purpose had made the examination, and a full report will be filed at the next meeting.

Col. Weldy announced at this juncture that Logan has never had a Board of Cemetery Trustees, "either de jure or de facto," under the new code. This precipitated copious readings from the statutes and municipal code and a long discussion of the legality of the board appointed by Mr. Tritesch, Ex-Mayor. It was finally agreed that the board is all right as it stands, and the matter was laid to rest.

The reports of the Board of Public Affairs, recently referred back to them for their signatures, were presented to the Council, properly signed, and accepted.

Certain malodorous obstructions in an alley of the pottery Addition were reported as a nuisance. The proper committee was given power to act in the matter.

Mr. Thurness offered some remarks on the city work-house proposition, and after some talk on the subject, it was carried over with the understanding that an ordinance will be presented at the next meeting to dispose of this trouble permanently. Adjournment was then made.

Appointments to Be Made

Today will be political headman's day in the senate. Then the Herrick recess appointments will be up for final disposition at the hands of the Democratic majority. In the caucus yesterday the Democrats voted to reject all of the appointments. Senator Lamb reiterated his statement, however that he would vote for some of the holdovers.

There was a slight disposition in the caucus yesterday to kick against the ironclad rule of the resolution offered which provided for rejection of all of appointments. The argument prevailed that it would be more courteous to leave the entire matter in the governor's hands and trust to luck.

In the senate later Senator Williams moved that the standing committees be relieved of further consideration of the appointments. Senator Williams said he had no intimation of when the appointments of Governor Pattison would be ready.

The rejection of the recess appointments will create vacancies in every instance, but under the law, the officials will continue to serve until their successors are appointed and confirmed. There are 58 positions to be affected by the senate action tomorrow.

The recess appointments will go on the calendar and will be taken up in order so that there will probably be a good part of the session devoted to them alone.

Miss Pearl Taylor, of Columbus, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Eugene Wright, Sunday.

GREETING

We would be pleased to have the honor of your presence at our

4th Anniversary Opening
Saturday Afternoon
...March 17th, 1906...

It will be a double celebration—all hail to St. Patrick—also to us. It is our Fourth Birthday—and we're going to celebrate. Four years old and proud of it. Also, proud of the record of this store—proud of its reputation for fair treatment and honest dealing—proud of the peoples confidence as evidenced by the patronage of our friends, and it shall be our pride to retain your favor by continual offerings of right goods at right prices.—So, we say to one and all, come and see the splendid exhibit of Spring Goods that await you. Come and partake of the feast of good things—see the choice collection of worthy merchandise, and note the lowering tendency of the price tags.—What will you? Dress Goods? Silks? Undermuslins? Waists? Jackets? Skirts? Gloves? Belts? Ribbons? They are here, and all in keep with the new season's style changes.—Miss M. N. Parsons will also have her Spring Opening on the same date and will have on display all that is new and novel in Millinery.—So render to St. Patrick the things that are his—and attend the big Anniversary Opening. That will make March 17th a memorial day, and we'll all be happy.

Rochester=Lytle Co.

Among the Churches.

U. S. CHURCH.

R. A. Powell Pastor.

Sunday School 9 a. m.

Preaching 10 a. m.

Junior 2 p. m.

Senior 6 p. m.

Preaching 7 p. m.

LUTHERAN TRINITY CHURCH.

At Lutheran Trinity Church on

North Mulberry St., the service

next Sunday will be conducted as follows:

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.

English preaching 10:30 a. m.

Lenten service 7:00 p. m.

H. W. WALKER, Pastor.

PRE-BYTERIAN CHURCH

Regular services Sunday, preaching by the pastor Rev. C.

R. Wilson. Our church year closes

March 31st, and we wish to call the attention of our members to our benevolent assessments for the year. For Home missions, work in our own Presbytery the assessment is 35 cents per member.

The Assembly assessment 10 cents.

So far about half of our members have responded. We will be able to go to Presbytery this year with our assessments paid if you will do your part. Two Sundays yet remain before the church year

closes. The Ladies Missionary

Society will hold an open meeting

Tuesday evening, March 20th, beginning at 7:00 o'clock, following this will be a social hour at which refreshments will be served.

A silver offering will be received.

Delegates to the Presbyterial meeting at Marietta will also be elected. All are cordially invited to this meeting. If not worshiping elsewhere, come with us, you will be made welcome.

Talk about a pretty line of Box

Papers, see Bort & Co.'s show window this week.

A Plain Statement

We made a statement in plain

English as to what we would do.

Now if any one thinks we are mistaken in this matter all that is necessary is to come to either one of this firm, and if we do not put up, then denounce us as scoundrels and frauds and not fit to be patronized. We are willing to let these horses race, but not on paper; we don't keep that kink.

We will admit we did not ask

S. S. Ruble consent to mention our horses for which we beg his pardon, and we wish to thank him for the information as to what speed he has, for if that is all he

Livery Changes Hands.

Mr. Joshua Brown has purchased the livery stable of Mr. E. P.

Armstrong, on Second street. Mr.

Brown is one of the Township

Trustees, and was until recently

associated with Mr. Rudolph Rem-

pel in the hardware business.

The deal was made last Friday,

the consideration being $3500.

The Armstrong stable is one of the best livery properties in this part of the country, and we feel

assured that its new owner will

bring to its management the business acumen and integrity that has made him successful in other

lines. He takes possession today.

Mrs. Collins Passes Away.

Ida May Poston was born at

Nelsonville, Ohio Feb. 1854. At

the time of her death, Monday

evening at ten o'clock she was 52

years and 12 days old. She came to Logan at the age of eleven and

on Feb. 25, 1880 was married to

Isaac Newton Collins, who died

Oct. 1896. No children were born to this union. Mrs. Collins has been a resident of Logan ever since 1865. For several years her health has been poor, and four a

or five months ago her friends saw

that the final decline had commenced.

Mrs. Collins is survived by two brothers Mr. J. D. Poston, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. W. W. Pos-

ton of Nelsonville; and by two sisters Mrs. Minna Locke, of

Chicago, and Mrs. D. W. Carlisle,

of Phoenix, Arizona all of these

were present at the funeral except

Mrs. Carlisle, who is ill.

Funeral services were conducted

at the home, today at 2 p. m.,

by Rev. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of which she was a member. Music was furnished by the church choir.

Mrs. L. Warner was hostess of the Art and Thimble Club yesterday afternoon.

Snow Storm.

(Columbus Press.)

Grim Old Winter has concluded

to not only linger, but plump down

hard in the lap of spring.

Beginning Sunday morning just

about Sunday school time, snow

began to fall and continued almost

uninterruptedly until late at night.

The result was anything from 64

inches in the city to 12 inches of

Livery Changes Hands.

Mr. Joshua Brown has purchased the livery stable of Mr. E. P.

Armstrong, on Second street. Mr.

Brown is one of the Township

Trustees, and was until recently

associated with Mr. Rudolph Rem-

pel in the hardware business.

The deal was made last Friday,

the consideration being $3500.

The Armstrong stable is one of

the best livery properties in this

part of the country, and we feel

assured that its new owner will

bring to its management the business acumen and integrity that

has made him successful in other

lines. He takes possession today.

Mrs. Collins Passes Away.

Ida May Poston was born at

Nelsonville, Ohio Feb. 1854. At

the time of her death, Monday

evening at ten o'clock she was 52

years and 12 days old. She came to Logan at the age of eleven and

on Feb. 25, 1880 was married to

Isaac Newton Collins, who died

Oct. 1896. No children were born

to this union. Mrs. Collins has been a resident of Logan ever

since 1865. For several years her

health has been poor, and four a

or five months ago her friends saw

that the final decline had commenced.

Mrs. Collins is survived by two

brothers Mr. J. D. Poston, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. W. W. Pos-

ton of Nelsonville; and by two

sisters Mrs. Minna Locke, of

Chicago, and Mrs. D. W. Carlisle,

of Phoenix, Arizona all of these

were present at the funeral except

Mrs. Carlisle, who is ill.

Funeral services were conducted

at the home, today at 2 p. m.,

by Rev. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of which she

was a member. Music was furnished

by the church choir.

Mrs. L. Warner was hostess of the Art and Thimble Club yester-

day afternoon.

Snow Storm.

(Columbus Press.)

Grim Old Winter has concluded

to not only linger, but plump down

hard in the lap of spring.

Beginning Sunday morning just

about Sunday school time, snow

began to fall and continued almost

uninterruptedly until late at night.

The result was anything from 64

inches in the city to 12 inches of

The "beautiful" in the country.

Late at night the temperature began to drop, and Monday morning saw a regular January day.

Photographers who have been waiting all winter for "snow pictures," certainly had a chance Sunday and early Monday morning to get some of the finest.

Not in years has the snow clung to each bush, and bow, and twig as it did Sunday and Monday, and if there should be a quick thaw, the chances are for a big flood, as the snow has extended up to the hills and headwaters of the Scioto,

Olentangy and Alum creek, the ground is well saturated now and there would be a speedy escape

for the snow water down the